Three months 1 50

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the rate of ONE DOLLAR AND PIFTY CENTS per square for the first, ONE DOLLAR for the second, and FIFTY CENTS for each subsequent observed and period less than three months obsTUARIES, TRIBUTES OF RESPECT and all communications which subserve private interests, will be paid for as advertisements.

VOL. XX

of Scots. FROM PROUDE'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND.] She was allowed to take six of her on the arm of an officer of the guard, he descended the great staircase to the confide, "In thee, oh Lord, have I put hall. The news had spread far through the country. Thousands of people were collected outside the walls. About three cither side, and the carls being now hundred knights and gentlemen of the a little behind her, Kent pointed to county had been admitted to witness the them with his white wand, and looked execution The tables and forms had been inquiringly at his companion. Shrewsremoved, and a great wood fire was bla bury whispered that they were the rezing in the chimney. At the upper mains of two abcesses from which she end of the hall, above the fire-place, but had suffered while living with him at near it, stood the scaffold, twelve feet Sheffield. When the psalm was finishsquare and two feet and a half high. It ed she felt for the block, and, laying was covered with black cloth; a low down her head, muttered. "In manus, rail ran round it covered with black domine tuas, commendo animam meam. cloth also, and the sheriff's guard of The hard wood seemed to hurt her, for halberdiers were ranged on the floor below on the four sides to keep off the The executioners gently removed them, crowd. On the scaffold was the block, lest they should dead a the blow, and black like the rest; a square black cush ion was placed behind it, and behind the cushion a black chair; on the right The scene had been too trying even for the axe leant against the rail, and two His arm wandered. The blow fell on mask figures stood like mutes on either the knot of the handkerchief, and scarce side at the back. The Queen of Scots, as ly broke the skin. She neither spoke with absolute composure, looked around morphosis was witnessed, strange as was her smiling, and sat down. Shrews- ever wrought by wand of tabled enchanbury and Kent followed, and took their ter. The coif fell off and the false the person least interested in the words raised the head, as usual to show it to which were consigning her to death. the crowd, exposed the withered fea-"Madam," said Lord Shrewsbury to her, tures of a grizzled, wrinkled old woman. when the reading was ended, "you hear what we are commanded to do." "You said the Dean of Peterborough. A will do your duty," she answered, and loud Amen rose over the hall. of Peterborough, Dr. Fletcher, approach ed the rail, "Madam," he began with a low obeisance, "the Queen's most exmost excellent Majesty"-thrice he commenced his sentence, wanting words to pursue it. When he repeated the nels stood at the doors who allowed no. words a fourth time, she cut bim one to pass out without permission; and Mr. Dean," she said, "I after the first pau e, the carls still keeps am a Catholic, and must die a Catholic. am a Catholic, and must die a Catholic. It is useless to attempt to move me, and It then appeared that a favorite lapdo your prayers will avail me but little. "Change your opinion, Madam," he cried, his tongue being loosed at last "repent of your sins, settle your faith scated itself between the head and neek in Christ, by him to be saved " "Trouble irom which the blood was still flowing not yourself any further, Mr. Dean," It was carried away and carefully washshe answered; "I am settled in my own ed, and then beads, Paternoster, hand-Shrewsbury, "to see you so addicted to the block and on the scaffold, was burnt support organic life? Popery." "That image of Christ you in the half fire in the presence of the Within the sea are living beings the assembly joined. As his voice was one of her warmest admirers, de sounded out in the hall she raised her seribes her bearing as infinitely tran own, reciting with powerful deep chested sending the power of the most accomtones the penitential Psalms in Latin, plished actor to present. The associaspicuous vehemence, she struck the cru dress would have sufficed, had she cared gives moral support to the cater? disinferited, for the Queen whom she had endeavored to murder. She prayed God to avert his wrath from England, that England which she had sent a last message to Philip to be seech him to make. She forgave her enemies, whom she had invited Philip not to forget, and then praying to the saints to interced. you shall end all my troubles." They even in defeat and death, to tasten upon offered their help in arranging her does her the reputation of a persecutor, which her the reputation of a persecutor, which her the reputation of a persecutor, which water, at ordinary temperatures, "Truly, my lords," she said with a smile she had most endeavored to avoid, to to the Earls, "I never had such grooms stamp her name with infamy, and pos- readily absorbs carbonic acid, and under fashioned those costly beautiful garwaiting on me before." Her ladies were sibly drag her down to destruction. disturb the hair, and was hung upon the rail. The black robe was next removed. Below it was a petticoat of crimson velue. The black robe was next removed. The black robe was next removed.

Sumter Watchman.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 6, 1870.

NO 48.

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, MORALITY AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

HISTORIC EXTRACT. certain that it must have been carefully studied, and that the pictorial effect more signally justified. It cut away the abolus. Fishes were in the carly times and sister down there among the daises."

The Last Hours of Mary Queen must have been appalling. The women only interest on which the Scotch and a weak and pusillaneous race, destitute

And when we gathered flowers there was whose firmness had hitherto borne the trial, began now to give way, spasmodic sobs bursting from them which they could not check. "No criez vous," she said, "j'ay promis pour vous." Strug- his projects the passionate patriotism of bearing, multiplying as they did to an the English nobility, who refused to be alarming extent. It is heartrending to toward every stray waif which came themselves the passionate patriotism of bearing, multiplying as they did to an the English nobility, who refused to be alarming extent. It is heartrending to toward every stray waif which came within our ken. When our first baby own people with her, and select them again and again, she crossing them in tempted, even by their ereed, to betray think of, but it is nevertheless a fact, owa people with her, and select them herself. She chose her physician Burgoyae, Andrew Melville, the apothecary, Gorion, and her sergeon, with two ladies, Elizabeth Kennedy and Curle's young wite, arbara Mowbray, whose young wite, arbara Mowbray, whose young wife, arbara Mowbray, whose child she had baptized. "Allons done," hand to them, "Adieu, au revoir." England, was smitten with paralysis; Catskill group be held entirely guiltless, a bridge, sprang from her arms as she she then said—"Let us go," and passing out attended by the earls, and leaning out attended by the earls, and leaning and left her alone. On her knees she invader arrived at last, supported by the contagious than good. And the oysters river below, sinking from sight formy trust." Her shoulders being ex-[From the New York World.] THE CRACK OF DOOM. The Dissolution of the Planet we Inhabit fatally. -Professor Wartz's Theory in Regard tion of Carbon by the Mollusks - The Coming New Zoic Cycle.

planet. *

then one of them holding her slightly,

the other raised the axe and struck ha: ollowed its mistress unperceived.

and was concealed under her clothes

w - n discovered it gave a short cry, and were two other chairs for the earls, the practised headsman of the Tower, by Professor Wurtz, is, according to lived. But the thing is being carried some authorities, based on strict deduc- too far. It should be stopped now ; but tion from physical law. Carbonic acid unfortunately, the fishes have the best forms one thousanth part of the atmos- of us. If the vorst comes to the worst, she swept in, seemed as if coming to take a part in some solemn pageant Not a muscle of her face could be seen Not a muscle of her face could be seen of skin, which he divided without with the divided without with the could be seen of skin, which he divided without with the could be seen of skin and the skin and grow plants. It is evident that, compar-ed with other constituents of the at-his best to ward it off; let him build mosphere, this gas exists to but a very his Birminghams, his Pittsburgs and creeping along feebly just this side of places; the sheriff stood at her left plaits. The labored illusion vanished, and Beale then mounted a platThe lady who had knelt before the the only means by which it is restored rium, but by so doing he is only partially and temporarilly winding up the machine form, and read the warrant aloud. In block was in the maturity of grace and to the air are the combustion and decay and temporarilly winding up the machine all the assembly Mary Stuart appeared leveliness. The executioner, when he of organic bodies, and the respiration of only to see it run down again. Nothanimals If the gas were used only by ing butter could be said in conclupants, these means of its restoration to sion than the Professor's own words : the air would be sufficient to counterbal | Into the the ocean depths this preance its comsumption, and for this cious constituent of the air is continually reason: The approximate number of undergoing living species of plants is 100,000 - the rose as if to kneel and pray. The Dean end," said the Earl of Kent, rising and individuals of each species outnumber standing over the body, "to the Queen's ing those of each species of animals and the Gospel's enemies." Orders had been given that everything which she kingdom is, approximately, radiates, 10, rive when "the element shall melt with cellent Majesty;" "Madam the Queen's had worn should be immediately de- 000; mollasks, 20,0.0; articulates, fervent heat;" and which, under the stroyed, that no relies should be carried 300,000 ; vertebrates, 20,000 - making influence of this heat, the calcie and in all 350,000. It is thus seen that, magnesic carbonates shall be converted animals being so much in excess of into igneous silicates rendering up again plants, they would throw out more gas the treasure of carbonic acid in their than would be sufficient to support the marble grasp, the atmospheric oxygen, in decaying, would restore carbon to the vitality, shall also then be at least parair, and, as nearly all that animals take tially withdrawn by oxidation of sul from the air they restore to it, an phides and of ferrous exide; and the are unceasingly disturbing this equilibrium and withdrawing the gas from the atmosphere What are those in trume tablies which are thus untirsaid the blood had touched, with the cloth on lighty rendering; the globe unfit to hold there," said Kent, "will not profit crowd. The scaffold itself was next re preparing destruction to all life. The of that dreadful railroad accident, there you if He be not engraved in your moved. A brief account of the execu- devil fish, of which Victor Hugo has was only a hardful of curls matted toheart." She did not reply, and turns tion was drawn up, with which Henry given such a romantic and horrible deing her back on Fletcher knelt for her own devotions. He had been evidently to London, and then every one was discontinuous claim, and the and head—neck and shoulders and chest instructed to impair the Catholic com missed. Silence settled down on Forth- delicious but deadly oyster, who, like mutilated and gory-one little hand plexion of the scene, and the Queen of cringay, and the last scene of the life of the heartless monster that he is, lies in and arm still in place, the other torn Scots was determined that he should Mary Stuart, in which tragedy and his bed and bides his time, watching in away and gone-feet and limbs disnot succeed. When she knelt he com- melodrama were so strangely inter grim repose his evening prey. Babbage menced an extempore prayer in which mingled, was over A spectator, who undertook to show that the destruction tasteful tattered and soiled; no name As his voice was one of her warmest admirers, de of one animal by another produced more happiness than the world would know, if no such destruction went on, which was a scientific way of saving introducing English sentences at intertion of the stage was, perhaps, uncon-that if no animal atc. none would live, vals, that the audience might know what sciously suggested by what was in fact, and that animals like to live. It took she was saying, and praying with esp - notwithstanding the tremendous reality many pages of the Bridgewater treatises cial distinctness for her holy father with which it closed, the most brilliant to prove this astounding fact; but what the Pope From time to time, with con acting throughout. The plain gray solace is that to the caten-although it ilix against her bosom, and then, as the only to go through with simplicity the feel justified in cating oysters, but ah Dean gave up the struggle, leaving her part which was assigned to her. She latin, she prayed in English, wholly, intended to produce a dramatic sensation, nibbling at our vitals, while pretending still clear and loud. She prayed for and she succeeded. The self-possession merely to be assimilating infasoria. Yet the church which she had been ready to be tray, for her son, whom she had disinherited, for the Queen whom she death so bravely; yet, in the midst our eyes and refuse to see it—it is still to be assumpting intusoria. Let such is the horrible fact. Disguise it as we may; shut our eyes to it; tarn death so bravely; yet, in the midst our eyes and refuse to see it—it is still that an always are after us.

then, praying to the saints to intercede for her with Christ, and kissing the crus cifix and crossing her own breast, "Even as thy arms, oh Jesus," she cried. "were sixteenth century appeared to be the almost infinite number of these fish spread upon the cross, so receive me into thy mercy and forgive my sins." proper fruits of it. To assume and to with calcareous shells or skeletons—those the carry through the character of a victim those large fish who will take in carbon that the carry through the character of a victim those large fish who will take in carbon that the carry through the character of a victim those large fish who will take in carbon that the carry through the character of a victim those large fish who will take in carbon the carry through the car With these words she rose; the black of religious intolerance, to exhibit her- if they can get it-we must admit with mates stepped forward, and in the usual self as an example of saintliness, suf- professor Wurtz, that they are likely to form begged her forgiveness. "I for- fering for devotion to the truth, would cause the "great machine to run down, give you," she said, "for now I hope be to win the victory over Elizabeth, and let "affinity obtain its final victory the usual pressure of the atmosphere, it allowed to come up upon the scaffold vor can it be said that she failed. She takes up its own bulk of it, When the to assist her; for the work to be done could not, indeed, stay the progress of gas has passed from the water, and was considerable, and had been prepared the Reformation, make England a prowith no common thought. She laid her vince of Spain, or arrest the dissolution es it is permanently locked there, and erucifix on her chair. The chief execu- of an exploded creed; but she became ever afterwards is unavailable for tioner took it as a perquisite, but was a fitting tutelary saint for the sentimen- purposes of organic life. Thus, the ordered instantly to lay it down. The tal Romanism of the modern world. She water of the ocean is forced to draw lawn veil was lifted carefully off, not to has had her revenge, if not on Elizabeth from the air immediately above it in vet. The black jacket followed, and under the jacket was a body of crimson Stuart, which, if it erred at all, erred one atom from the air, which is thus tried our best to find her parents or satin. One of her ladies handed her a from the beginning on the side of steadily rendered less and less fit for friends; we had left no stone unturned; loyal cuthusiasm of an undivided na- got bigger and fatter, and more of them, ever. and the fish became more officious, and grew under the superfices of the sea and affrighted lips. And though we believed since that time, they have been taking away our carbon, stealthily and noise- a little body floated upon the shore we lessly, it is true, but not, therefore, less to the End of All Things -- The Destruc- acy. In the old times carbon was as plentiful as heart could wish. In the carboniferous age, the earth, not content with its fishes and clams, sent out trees to rob us. Giant ferns and all imagin-"There are chemical changes now able shapes and forms of plants grew in active on the earth's surface whose con- rank luxuriance, and as soon as they tinuance must inevitably bring about had got all the carbon thes wanted, the she placed her hands under her neck. the final extinction of man, and ulti- earth shook its back and laid them away mately that of all other life on our for coal. This was all very well if * comparatively had not gone on, for it gave men a and geologically speaking, the end is show, and when there was just enough carbon in the air to let him live, he This startling announcement, made availed himself of the opportunity and

> Into something rich and strange,' never to reappear in form available to The number of species in the animal life, until, indeed, that time shall arvegerables, tilking bulk by bulk. Plants representative of affinity, enemy of equilibrium would be kept up But earth be thus far advanced in prepara-

"BARLING." BY MAY WHITNEY.

You see, this was all we knew about her when we gathered up what was left gether and stained with blood; some figured utterly; clothing once rich and anywhere-no one claiming the remnants of mortality-nothing whatever to signify who and what it had been.

"Who was her father? Who was her mother? Had she a sister? Had she a brother?'

None could teli. A delicate chain of gold was round the neck, holding a tiny locket, crusted with jewels, but bloodstained like the rest-and in it a curl of black hair threaded with silver, and one little word, "DARLING."

vere claimed by some one, or could be identified, except this little waif; and after the excitement of the railroad disaster had abated, and the friends who had been bereaved by it had become used to grief and loss, and after many weeks of waiting for some one to come little coffin from the damp cold vault, in the church yard -and above it where the white marble gleamed, we carved This is but the beginning of like transier name:

"DARLING."

Whose darling? No matter. Somelips quivered and whitened and shrunk ments, clasped each other convulsively in prayer or despair-somewhere. The head from which that curl of silverthreaded hair was severed, tossed night after night restlessly upon its pillow, day by day whirled and throbbed and ached-somewhere. The house which had been glorified by such an angel's presence, which had resounded with aughter and song and pattering feet, was now dark and silent-somewhere.

pair of crimson sleeves, with which she leniency and weakness, as the one in the growth of plants, and consequently we had spared no expense—rememberthe growth of plants, and consequently we had spared no expense—remembertended on the black ranks and thus she delible stain on the reputation of the hastily covered her arms; and thus she stood on the black scaffold with the black figures all around her, blood red from head to foot. Her reasons for adopting so extraordinary a costume must be left to conjecture. It is only the three if any were best; and in our teenth Amendment on the part of the

So we learned with terror from her it must be true, and though days after had gone on loving it in every little child which came within our knowledge. Then plants followed in the conspir- Two others had since come to us, and gone back to heaven again.

All this was years ago; and to-night I have reason to thank God that before dear spirit could hardly have borne as well as I the dreadful blow. And beside, she, the mother, had found her own long ago in heaven, while I here in the earth fog, could not see or know. I am old and gray, too, and the blow is lightened now because I shall soon join

If it had come then, if we could have known the truth, we should have done -just what we did, with "DARLING," and grieved just as we did, with the added pang of certainty.

And to think what I must have suffered when that man came to me to-dayan old man, bent and withered and my own-and confessed to me:

"I stole your darling years ago, because I loved its mother and hated you for winning her away. I bought innocent men. They have by trickery your servant with gold, and the tale she and violence forced upon the people of old was a lie. I gave up my life to your than any mother. And because I learned to love her as I loved no other being, I became softened, and purified, and repentant; and the inevitable cross was aid upon my shoulders by the augels, and I looked to Gop through tears and o come with the child least your joy the story by a friend who perished on died with them, but that to-day, standing beside her little grave where you had carved her own sweet name which I to my soul whispering of forgiveness from the Father of Merries and pointing,

The man has gone again. I could do ready to regain my own; and sitting here in the double twilight of age and eve, I think of all the darlings in the course which the Federal Congress world stolen away from their lawful homes and perishing where none can know; of darling loves ruthlessly snatch ed from the breast which quickened and warmed and cherished them; of baby and clotted with gore and hidden away under the daisies.

Whose darlings are they all? and who shall confess to have been the cause of buried? Does any tender hand

"Garland their urns with white roses?" No matter. Somebody,-everybody, -will at last find and know their own and go in at the pearly gate, grand and glorious, saying, as I do to night, "This was my Darling.

LO. THE POOR NEGRO ! How the Radicals serve their negro ers who were killed, but all of them election in Georgetown, D. C., it says:

At the municipal election in Georgetown, although the Radicals had a clear majority through the numerical power of the negroes, every negro upon their ticket was defeated. They carried every Alderman-all whites. On the Common and say "She was mine," we took the Council ticket they had placed the and put it down beside our own darling and managed so as to leave every man of actions, in other places where negroes The political equality and abound. to gull the negro, but he will be cheatbody's heart yearned in vain for the ed and kept down wherever the Radicals clasp of the dimpled arms. Somebody's can do so safely and without endangering their own success. But how long > Davis. This affords the Radicals a theme for frequent comment. But the Detroit Free Press asks, "Does not Zachariah occupied by George Clinton and Martin in the determination to defend them Van Buren, and Grant in that of George selves, a revolution will ensue than Washington and Jefferson?'

An Ohio man wants to bet on lady Congressmen within three years.

Three boxes rule the world--the ballot-box, cartridge-box and band-

[From the Baltimore Gasette.] FORCIBLE RESISTANCE. When a short time since we suggest people of Maryland would be as unwise as it would be hopelessly futile, we by no means intended to deprecate an uprising of the people of this country against the fection now dominant at DRUGS, . MEDICINES Washington. On the contrary, it is our deliberate conviction that all further aggressions and usurpations of Congress should be checked, if it can be done in no other way, by the mighty voice of a popular revolution. We speak these words advisedly. They embody the doctrines for the viudication of which the founders of the American Republic staked their fortunes and their lives, and it becomes this people to cling to them now, despite the menaces of the faction which wields the purse and sword of the nation and controls the corrupt currents flowing from what a short time since was our great fountain of justice. What is called loyalty to day is a barren lie, and true patriotism means stern and this news about "DARLING's" parents reached me another grave was added to the three in the church yard; for the be a limit to subservient submission ! Are the majority of the citizens of this country to refrain henceforth from having a voice in its affairs? Is the Radical faction to be suffered to obliterate the Constitution altogether and forever, and to trample at will upon the rights of two-thirds of the people? It would seem so. Now or never is the time when those who would stop this mad Radical barrens at the country produce of all kinds taken in Barrens and training the country produced at the prices. revolution must act. No tyrant has ever more manifestly abused the power confided to him for the public good that has Congress; none has ever rendered himself more justly amenable to popular indignation and punishment than the leaders of the Radical faction. They limited extent in the form in which his Sheffields, and thus endeavour to the golden gate, with hair as white as have overthrown the public laws and L. P. LORING. time honored, charterred institutions .-They have cruelly oppressed and wronged thousands upon thousands of > various States rulers whom the latter babe, and cared for her more tenderly justly and cordially despise. They have wrested political power from the hands Stock of Hardware and of the white man and conferred it in large measures upon the negro. They construct and overturn State governments by their own despotic edicts, regardless of the will or rights of the said, 'Thy will be done.' And not daring governed. They are the masters of this land, and if they be not now called to should strike me dead, I sent her with account, the American freeman must soon sink into the political serf. The that fatal train. The secret might have hypocrites call their course "progress." Cromwell called it the "Lord's work when he put his foot upon all that was best and noblest in England, stabled his gave out of my affection, a vision, came dragoous in her churches and cathedrals, and filled the Parliament at Westmin ister Hall with a set of ignorant and canting levellers. Marat preached frame to the only atonement I could ternity when the heads of hundreds of innocent women were falling beneath no less than forgive, being so nearly ready to regain my own; and sitting being shot and drowned en masse in the here in the double twilight of age and and has been pursuing be not the privilege-nay, the duty of the people-then the teachings of all history are wholly false, and the principles for which our fathers fought were but so much clap hopes deprived of their natural food, and crushed out of recognition; of traitors by taking up arms against the PHOTOGRAPHS, heavenly aspiration ground into earth successor of the Plantagenets and Tudors, if Americans are to be accounted culpable should they refuse to day futher submission to the decrees of the sham Congress which now claims to be their ruin aud death? Where are they the real and legal representative of the people of the United States. The South is helpless. Maryland stands alone, and on the verge of deadly peril, as did the prophet upon the edge of the pit of ravening lions. But the Democratic party still exists. The majority of the Northern people cannot but deplore the ruin which is being wrought, and despise the agitators who recognize now no law but their own will and their own ttle word, "DARLING."

>
> That was all. There were twelve othof the large Northern States has made the Radical faction what is. For years they cowered before military insolence and the threats of arbitrary power. They not only maintained silence when it most became them to speak out manfully, but uttered from time to time thoughts which they leathed and accepted docnames of three negroes to gull the rest and managed so as to leave every man of and now utter defiant words ; but, mistrusting the honest instincts and noble courage of millions who await the signal to vindicate liberty and constitunegro dominating dodge will be kept up tional government, they are dallying with schemes by which to cheat a bold. insolent faction out of its power, or seeking the channel through which it away because the rose hued cheeks and will the negroes submit? Let the white the rights and freedom which have been away because the rose hued cheeks and mouth could no more be kissed. The Radicals either surrender their vaunted bands that principle or fight fairly up to the line triots of the North propose to bear the voke of an untrammelled and despotie Congress, we cannot know. How long A STOCKDOLOGER.—Revels occupies they intend to consent to a surrender of the seat once occupied by Jefferson all they were taught to hold so dear and priceless, we may not surmise. But in the name of a State now powerless, we protest against this shameless apathy, Chandler fill the seat once occupied by this quiescent degradation. On her be Lewis Cass? Is not Fenton in the seat half we demand of the intelligent and of Silas Wright, Dick Yates in the seat liberty loving people of this land a reasof Douglass, Charles Sumner in that of sortion of the sacred right of revolution, Daniel Webster, Drake in that of and when they do show the knaves in Thomas H. Beuton, Colfax in that once | power that they are earnest and resolute

> > Some of the fashionable colored ladies of New York heighten the brilliancy of their complexions by artfully-arranged pieces of white court plaster.

les and peaceful.

1870. 1870. MAYESVILLE, S. C.

J. A. MAYES & CO. WILL CONTINUE DURING THE YEAR TO KEEP ON HAND A FULL SUPPLY OF GOODS IN THEIR LINE, CONSISTING OF

GROCERIES,

AND PROVISIONS.

FLOUR.

It is our aim to keep for sale only good quali-ties of FLOUR, and families may rely upon our stock as affording the best grades of Extra and Family Flour, be had in the markets.

Our groceries generally are all FIRST-CLASS GOODS, id our DRUGS and MEDICINES are war-

Anti-Malarial Specific. FOR THE PERMANENT CURE OF Chills and Fevers.

TONIC BITTERS.

Jan 1, 1870

New Hardware Store, Main-st. under Sumter Hotel.

Messrs. King & Huppman. BALTIMORE, M. D.

Would respectfully announce to his friends and he public, that he has received and opened, at he above establishment a Family Utensils. embracing every article in this line of busine which he intends to sell at the LOWEST PRICES, FOR CASH. He will keep always in store, & complete assort

Collin's Axes, Ames' Shovels and Spades, Trace Chains, Hoes, Rakes, Pitch Forks, Grain Cradles, Soythe Blades, Guano Soives, Pocket and Table Cutlery, Brass Preserving Kettles,

Tin Ware, Window Glass-all sizes.
Persons in want of the most convenient and oconomical Stoves, can be supplied with the latest improved patterns at prices which cannot full to give entire satisfaction.

May 26

PICTURES,

HIGHEST AND LATEST STYLES OF ART, ARE NOW TAKEN BY

WILDER & WHEELER, St. Joseph's Academy. At the Gallery in Sumter, lately kept by H. E. McCALLUM, such as

IVORYTYPES,

AMBROTYPES. FERRO YPES, &c FRAMES of all sizes furnished.
PICTURES colored, and old pictures cleaned

nd remounted.
STEREOSCOPES AND STEREOSCOPIC

JAMES CALDWELL

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN Boots, Shoes, Hats,

Trunks &c.

Opposite J. T. SOLOMONS, Sumter, So. Ca.

TO THE Planters of Maysville and Surrounding Country.

GENTLEMEN;-We most respectfully offer you the following

PERUVIAN GUANO, direct from the agent, FARMERS PLASTER OR GYPSUM, up t standard,

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO. COMPOUND ACID PHOSPHATE, for composi

ting with cotton seed.

DISSOLVED BONE A SUPERIOR ARTICLE

BAUGH'S RAW BONE PHOSPHATE,

CAROLINA FERTILIZER, THE NAVASSA AMMONIATED SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE of Wilmington, Jan 5-3m MAYES & COOPER Agents.

For Sale. THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY

THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY, about one mile from Statesburg, and which was the family residence of the late John Bradley.—
It consists of a inrea and fine Dwelling House, with 10 rooms, (8 unusually large,) Brick Kitchen, Stable, Barn. Carringe House and other necessary out buildings, all in thorough repair, and about 140 acres of and. Place entirely healthy. Price $5000 00 and terms accomodating. For other particulars, apply to the undersigned, at Marietta, Ga., or to J. S. G. Richardson, Esq. at Sumter S. C.

Feb 23-4f.

The consists of studies and the all scholarship remain unchanged, but it for scholarship remain unchanged, but it for scholarship remains unchanged, but it for scholarship which none has ever been more blood-

PROMPTLY LARGUE

The Sunter Wa

Highest Style of

SUMTER

SPLENDID LOT OF

Manufactured by Harbeck, Conklin & Manufacturers of Stoves, Tin and Japaned Ware, And Agents for Kaoline and Enameled Ware.

For sale by L. P. LORING, Agent,

COIT'S MILITARY AND COMMERCIAL

Academy, MAYESVILLE, S. O.

IN THIS INSTITUTION BOYS and YOUNG MEN will be thoroughly fitted for COLLEGE TO BUSINESS.

the Sciences and ordinary English Brauches pescial instruction will be given in PENMAN SHIP, BOOK KEEPING, Business Forms and Accounts, and in Vocal Musics.

The Principal refers with pride and grailflestion to his former pupils, who have taken high positions in College or Business.

THE FIRST SESSION begins October 188

and closes February 15th.
THE SECOND SESSION begins February 16th THE SECOND SESSION begins Fabruary 1011 and closes June 30th.
TERMS: $100 per Session for Board
Tuition, invariably in advance.
French, German and Drawing extra.
For Circulars address
CAPT. WILLIAM H. COPT.

REFEREES:

Rev. J. Leighten Wilson, D. D., Dr Prince, Cheraw, S. C.; Rev. J. B. Mack, Charleston, S. C.; Rev. G. W. Petrie, D. D., Monigorie, ery, Ala.; Messrs. Blanding & Richardson, Sumter, S. C.

Sisters of Our Lady of Morcy,

SUMTER, S. C. THE Collegiate Exercises of this First Class Institute, will be resonable on the 1st of September. As prompt attendance is requested in order to facilitate the progress and arranges ment of the classes. The new buildings are examined at the commodations for one hundred bostders. The extensive grounds and plazzas are ample for open air exercise, and young ladies are thorough; instructed in English Mathematics, Fronch, In-lian, Music, Drawing, Painting, &c., &c. - Josephs healthy, air pure, wa er good, and terms reages able. For particulars apply to the Superference of St. Joseph's Academy, Sumter, or to the Euperforces of the Sisters of Mercy, Charleston, who

MUSIC LESSON Vocal and Instrumental

The undersigned having taken his residence at Sumter, will give lessons in Sieging and on the PIANO and VIOLIN. He will likewise give the structions in FRENCH, GERMAN and ARITOS METIC. TUNING OF PLANOS ATTENDED TO.

For further particulars, apply to him at his esidence in Harvin Street. WOFFORD COLLEGE

SPARTANDURG C. M. 80. CA.

FACULTY: REV. A. M. SHIPP, D. D., President at de Professor Montal and Moral Sei ner. DAVID DUNGAN, A. M., Professor Angleof Languages and Literature. REV. WHITEFOOLD SMITH, D. D., Professor English Literature.

English Literature, WARREN DUPRE, A. M., Professor Natural Science.
JAS. H. CARLISLE, A. M., Professor Mathe REV A. H. LESTER, A. M., Professor flagors matics.

REV A. H. LESTER, A. M., Professor filipare and Biblical Literature.

The Preparatory School, under the immediate supervision of the Faculty, Jun. W. Shir. A. B., Principal.

Divinity School—Rev. A. M. Shipp, R. Rev. Whitefoord Smith, D. D.; Rev. A. H. Lester, A. M.

The first Session of the Sixteenth Collegalis Year begins on the first Monday 100 Gauge 1859, the second Session begins on the first had day in January, 1870.

The course of studies and the standard scholarship remain auchanged, but the Fact to make a first properties of parame particular studies only.

The Schools also open at the same three faction per year, in College Ciasso, Install contingent fee, $54 in Specie, or its squivalence.

For further particulars advices

ELLEN BRADLEY.

May 10